Truckee Lutheran Presbyterian Church

Follow Jesus. Love All. Serve Others.

TLPC NEWS

May 22, 2021 - PENTECOST EDITION

A MESSAGE FROM PASTOR JEANIE

This Sunday is Pentecost, the day that we celebrate the birthday of the Christian Church. It is also our birthday, the 29th anniversary of the founding of Truckee Lutheran Presbyterian Church.

On that first Pentecost, wild winds, blazes of fire, and a cacophony of voices blended in the chaos of the Holy Spirit nudging the disciples to do something new. That new idea was the church, the community of believers worshipping God and gathering as the hands and heart of Jesus. We have an amazing heritage in the church, a heritage passed down by men and women who have faithfully read God's Word, sung the rich canon of hymns, and faithfully followed Jesus in feeding the hungry, caring for the sick, visiting those in prison, and sharing God's vision.

Pentecost changed everything.

- It was the Pentecost Spirit that during the dark ages led the church to keep alive art and music, education, and libraries.
- It was the Pentecost Spirit that led Christians to build schools, colleges, universities, and seminaries, like Wartburg Seminary where Jonas Ellison is studying.

- It was the Pentecost Spirit that led Christians to invent orphanages for children orphaned and living on the streets and work to end human trafficking.
- It was the Pentecost Spirit that led Christian ministers and abolitionists to speak out and ultimately end human enslavement in our nation.
- It was the Pentecost Spirit that gave voice to leaders like the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, leading our nation to civil rights.
- It was the Pentecost Spirit that gave Christian men and women courage to care for the sick and dying in the plagues that ravished Europe.
- It is the Pentecost Spirit that gives Christians the inspiration to feed the hungry, like the Farming Hope project in San Francisco that I learned about in the Synod Hunger Meeting Thursday night.
- It is the Pentecost Spirit that challenges men and women to go to communities devastated by disaster to rebuild and bring hope out of chaos, like the mission trips we have sponsored with Presbyterian Disaster Assistance.
- It is the Pentecost Spirit that supports ministries in our own community, like Sierra Community House.
- And it is the Pentecost Spirit that binds us together as a congregation, loving one another as Jesus first loved us.
