A MESSAGE FROM PASTOR JEANIE

Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

On Friday morning we celebrated the life of Ike Landstrom, giving glory to God for his faith and the promise of eternal life. Jane and Ike's three children were there, Scott driving in through the snow from the Bay Area with his son Bryce, Kristin coming up from Roseville and her daughter flying in from Florida, and Dane who lives in Reno.

Memorials are a time when families gather, a time to be reunited. It was also a time for our faith family to gather, to share stories of Ike, and remember together the gift of the promises of Jesus, the love of God, and our love for each other.

It was one of those moments for me, as I gazed out at our congregation gathered together, to remember how blessed I am to serve with you. And, as looked out at all of you, each of you, I was so deeply thankful to serve Jesus with you, to be a part of this Body of Christ.

I shared with the congregation how Ike never failed to share his love of Jane with me every single Sunday. It was a reminder for

DAILY LENTEN DEVOTION

In preparation for our journey with Jesus as he "set his face toward Jerusalem" and the cross, each day in Lent we will have a very special Lenten devotion emailed to the TLPC Together email distribution list. What makes these devotions so special is that they are written by all of us. We invite everyone to choose a Bible verse that means something to you and share a brief story about the passage and why it is special to you. If you have a photograph or a song that will compliment the verse, please add that as well. Email the verse and story to Nancy Settle who has graciously agreed to compile our Lenten devotions. This is a gift from all of us to our faith family... We invite you to participate!

Nancy's email address is dnsettle@gmail.com

Ordination and Installation of Elders

Tomorrow, March 26, 9:30 am

Grace Chou, Jami Wiseman, and Jeff Rowe were nominated by TLPC's Nominating Committee and elected at our Congregational Meeting to serve as Elders on Council. Tomorrow is TLPC's service of Ordination and Installation. Jami and Jeff will be ordained as Elders and Grace will be installed. Our tradition of Ordination includes the laying on of hands, an ancient tradition that dates back to the Disciples ordaining Stephen and six others. Following the Day of Pentecost when the Disciples were empowered with the gifts to share the good news of Jesus Christ, the Disciples began a church in Jerusalem, feeding the hungry, caring for orphans and widows, and providing for the poor. The church grew and the disciples realized they needed help. They prayerfully chose seven Deacons to join them in the service of ministry. They laid hands on the seven and prayed. Our laying on of hands goes back to the disciples of Jesus.

"They chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolaus, a proselyte of Antioch. The congregation presented these men to the apostles. When the apostles had prayed, they laid their hands on the chosen men." (Acts 6:5-6).

I am always so moved as we come forward to lay hands on those who have been called to serve, knowing that this act goes back to the Disciples who first followed Jesus. May we be blessed tomorrow as we ordain and install our leaders and follow Jesus.
