A MESSAGE FROM PASTOR PAT

Because LOVE IS FROM GOD

Why should we love one another (with a Godly love)? The answer is simple: because love is from God. Good news! We don't have to make a herculean effort and force some love to come bubbling up from deep inside! Godly Love comes from God, and our task is to allow it to flow through us to those around us (and to folks far away that we might never meet in this life).

Allow it to flow through us?! What do you mean? What's stopping God's love from flowing to others?

The simple answer is this: selfishness. When all my focus is on my needs, my hurt, my desires, then the channel God wants to use to share love with others gets blocked.

John says that when God's love flows through us, God lives in us and is perfected in us. His idea is that, when we start focusing on others, God uses us to bless them AND God blesses us as well!

Friends, let your prayers be filled with blessings for others. Don't let their behaviors or idiosyncrasies derail your determination to seek God's best for them!

Faithfully,
Pastor Pat
