A MESSAGE FROM PASTOR PAT

ADMIRABLE: Francesca Cabrini

Born in Italy in 1850, Francesca was stricken with endocarditis at a young age. Her poor health rarely slowed her drive to serve, and she convinced the Pope to let her start an orphanage. He sent her to New York City to take care of the children of Italian immigrants. It was a monumental task! She had to overcome prejudice against women (and against Italians) and raise funds to build an orphanage, a hospital, and schools.

Since she expected to die any day, she worked as if each day were her last opportunity to accomplish her mission!

Her order, the Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, now serves the poor in 15 nations. Although she was a native of Italy, she became a US Citizen. That's why she's the first American saint, Beatified in 1938 and Canonized in 1946.

I wonder what we might accomplish if we imagined that each day might well be our last?!

Faithfully,
Pastor Pat
