A MESSAGE FROM PASTOR REBECCA

Last week's sermon was on the Lord's Prayer, and we recited an alternate version that comes from the New Zealand Book of Prayer [Anglican].

Over the years, I have collected other paraphrases of the prayer and even written one. I would like to share one more version that I couldn't fit in the sermon. It is from one of my spiritual gurus, Parker Palmer.

*Heavenly Father, Heavenly Mother,
Holy and blessed is your true name.
We pray for your reign of peace to come,
We pray that your good will be done,
Let heaven and earth become one.
Give us this day the bread we need,
Give it to those who have none.
Let forgiveness flow like a river between us,
From each one to each one.
Lead us to holy innocence
Beyond the evil of our days—
For yours is the power and the glory and the mercy:
Forever your name is All in One.*

I especially love the line about forgiveness being a river that flows between us, washing away resentments and bitterness, and healing the hurt and the trauma that we carry around with us. It reminds me of that living water Jesus talked about that gushes up to eternal life.

Would anyone like to share their own rendition? I would be happy to print it.

Pastor Rebecca

Please Join Us In Worship Tomorrow Morning at 9:00 AM

Pastor Rebecca Irelan will lead us in worship tomorrow -
Sunday, August 3
at 9:00 am.

During tomorrow's worship service, we will read about vanity in Ecclesiastes and we will hear Jesus' parable of The Rich Fool. Pastor Rebecca will help us think about what it means to be rich towards God and what it means to enjoy our toil.

Pastor Rebecca's sermon is titled:
"A Bigger Barn is Not a Blessing."

Please join us at 9:00 am in-person or on Zoom!

YOU ARE INVITED TO JOIN TLPC'S ADVOCACY GROUP!

WE HAVE AN ADVOCATE

TLPC's Social Action, Missions, and Justice Team invites you to join our new socialjusticeandadvocacy@tlpc.org email group. The purpose of this email group will be to keep members up-to-date on important advocacy issues that are promoted by ELCA Advocacy, Lutheran Office of Public Policy-CA, Bread for the World, and Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) Advocacy Support. This will allow us to write letters, send emails, and make phone calls to elected officials in a timely manner on issues our parent denominations deem important. Just as we have an advocate with the Father in Jesus, now, more than ever, we are called to be advocates for others.

If you would like to be a part of this important group, please send an email to thelotts@gmail.com to let me know you would like to join.

CLOSING THOUGHTS

Command those who are rich in this present world not to be arrogant nor to put their hope in wealth, which is so uncertain, but to put their hope in God, who richly provides us with everything for our enjoyment. Command them to do good, to be rich in good deeds, and to be generous and willing to share. In this way they will lay up treasure for themselves as a firm foundation for the coming age, so that they may take hold of the life that is truly life.

1 Timothy 6:17-19

What do you need a bigger barn for?
